GOD'S WILL GOD'S SPEED

We have entered into a time where you cannot turn on your television, open up your lap top, listen to your radio, or ride down your neighborhood street without noticing the polarizing “duality” that exist between God's children.

The consistent distraction on these divisive topics makes it easy for Americans and Christians alike to buy into this narrative of “duality” and the doctrine that the consistent opposition of a dueling society is the natural order of things and a concept we should accept and hold no control over.

“We must recognize that we have victory in Christ, yesterday, today, and always..”

As cultural conditions worsen and continuously decay you hear in the weary and tired voices of our elders tell us, “That’s the way it’s been, and that’s the way it will always be....” so we resign to the thought that things won’t get better and allow the enemy to destroy our hope in Christ and humanity.

All too often we resign to a lost battle taking L’s on humanities behalf forgetting that we have an almighty God that we serve.

Whenever any doctrine portrays good and evil as two equal opposing forces, that doctrine contradicts the scriptural position that good, represented by God Almighty, is the dominant power in the universe. Since Satan was not, and never will be, equal to God, any doctrine that says he is can be marked as a false doctrine. (Isaiah 14:12-15; Ezekiel 28:13-17; 1 John 4:4)

So let us as Christians take a shift in our perspective, putting aside this ideology that we are fighting a losing battle. We must recognize that we have victory in Christ, yesterday, today, and always. (John 16:33) While things may seem bleak as we await the results of the election, be encouraged! We serve a God who is sovereign and has already claimed the victory. This is the truth we can walk in no matter who is in the white house!

Regardless of what the outcome of the political season I challenge you to stand firm in your convictions but most firm in the sovereignty of God and his victory over a decaying world whom is no match for Christ.(1 John 5:4)

One of my favorite quotes by an unknown author is the simple words, “God’s will, God’s speed,” we know not the time or the hour for our perceived victories in life but we can find solace is knowing that if it is in his will, we shall see God’s Will and God’s Speed for His people.
