From 2000 - 2012, Anne held Just Give Me Jesus revivals, life-changing events in arenas in over thirty cities around the world, including Seoul, South Korea; London, England; Cardiff, Wales; San Juan, Puerto Rico; Asuncion, Paraguay; Kiev, Ukraine; Panama City, Panama; Toronto, Canada; Oslo, Norway; Manila, Philippines and Chisinau, Moldova. Subsequent to this, her presence through social media has escalated through her website and is one of the main emphases of her current ministry.

Anne has broken many glass ceilings. She was the only woman to be a plenary speaker at the International Congress of Itinerant Evangelists in Amsterdam in 1983, 1986 and 2000 and at the School of Evangelism in Moscow in 1991. She has been the featured speaker at conferences, seminaries, churches and universities on every continent of the world with the exception of Antarctica. Anne has received six honorary Doctorates. She presently serves on the Board of Directors for the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association, having previously served on the Board of the Evangelical Council of Financial Accountability, the Board of Trustees for Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary and the Board of Regents for Baylor University.

She was the Honorary Chair of the National Day of Prayer in 2014, then was chosen by Shirley Dobson to succeed her as Chairman of the National Day of Prayer Task Force from 2016-2017.

Anne's aim is clear - to bring revival to the hearts of God's people. And her message is consistent - calling people to a personal relationship with God through His Word.
